

Bismarck and Vicinity.

FRIDAY, JULY 11, 1873.

The Capital Hotel has been refitted of late. It now has twenty-two rooms. Capt. Crittenden is visiting his father, Gen. Crittenden, at Fort Rice.

Brass Band, a noble red man, looked over the presses in the Bismarck Tribune office to-day with evident interest.

Two Meadow King Mowers (new) at the Empire Store, opposite the printing office.

Two Horse Rakes at the Empire Store, opposite the printing office.

Edmond Hacker and M. Tippie are the principal contestants for the ground on which Bismarck is situated.

There will be preaching Sunday by Rev. D. C. Lyon at 11 a. m. and in the evening. Sunday school in the afternoon.

About four hundred tons of goods for the Indians have been received at Bismarck since the opening of the N. P. R. to the Missouri River.

John Mason, Fred Strauss and Watson & Goodhue were the first to put up awnings. They and a number of others have put down side walks.

W. W. Conner has assumed the duties of cashier in W. B. Shaw & Co's Deposits and Exchange Bank, vice John Caporale.

A complete assortment of Green House Bedding Plants and Shrubbery, Vase, & HILL, Duluth, Minn.

A pleasant party was had at the Capital Hotel on the 4th. Bismarck did not celebrate, but the 4th was a lively day here.

Just arrived at the City Bakery and Restaurant, a fine lot of Pickled Pigs Feet and Tongues, also a fine quality of Sausages.

Miss J. M. Hutton, a graduate of the First Normal School, Minnesota, and lately a teacher at Anoka has also opened a select school.

A gentleman from the East is expected here to-morrow to establish a nursery. He has telegraphed Col. Dismore to contract for breaking 160 acres for that purpose.

Raymond & Allen purchased the building erected by Mr. Cummings last fall and commenced business four weeks ago bringing in a large stock of goods. Their sales the first week were $3,000.

J. J. Jackson, Deputy U. S. Marshall, has planted five acres of crops on his claim one mile east of the village.

Another party has planted ten acres one mile west, on soil in both cases.

On the forty regiments of U. S. soldiers eight are now operating in the Upper Missouri country. Bismarck is their base of supplies; also for the several tribes of Indians west of the Missouri.

Timothy Jack is Secretary of the Sunday school organization at Jamestown. He is a man finely educated and though a school keeper believes that it requires something in addition to the whiskey interest to build up a town.

An article on the old settlers has appeared in the life of many others and is crowded out. Will persons who were here during the winter post the Tribune to the end that an article of lasting value may be written on this subject.

The Bismarck Postmaster receives a salary of $12 per annum. At this writing the village has no regular mail; that received is carried two hundred miles by private hands or received through the military mail.

Monday Mrs. Slaughter opened a school, advertised elsewhere as the Bismarck Academy. The prospects are very flattering indeed for a fine school. She had twenty-two names on her books on the day of opening.

Messrs. White & Rogers, who lived in a tent last winter, have recently erected a new building on the site of their old quarters, which in finish is not excelled by any building in town. The fixtures are new and cost displaying taste as well as enterprise. Asa Fisher has done likewise.

A. C. Smith is doing some excellent work at the photographic line. His Bismarck and other views are equal to any to be found at St. Paul. Mr. Smith came overland from Sioux City at the solicitation of Gen. Ogden to accompany the expedition but was not allowed to go.

The following gentlemen of the Wisconsin Editorial Association visited Bismarck last week: W. Morse, River Falls Gazette; C. F. Wagner, Augusta Herald; Geo. S. Luce, Calaveras Record and Bay's McKenley, Kenosha Telegraph. They spent but a short time but were pleased with the surroundings.

There were by actual count on the 4th inst., 147 buildings in Bismarck. This, of course, includes all places occupied for residence or offices. All but twenty of these have been erected this year, and at least half of them within sixty days.

Mr. Fournier has opened on Fourth street, opposite the "Big Tent," the Neoplaton Cream Room in the city, where the Ladies of Bismarck will always find a fine assortment of the finest Candies, Fruits, Nuts, Fresh Bread, Pies and Cakes, always on hand.

The Tribune building 22x30 was completed Wednesday morning; by Saturday completely enclosed, windows, doors, and floor in and the office, including a Taylor Cylinder Press and Quarter Medium Gordon Jobber, set up ready for business and one and a half column of type for the paper set.

Jan. A. Ekman was among the first to engage in business at Bismarck. He has a general commission and forwarding house, wholesale and retail liquors, boat stores, provisions, &c. He has an extensive fire proof cellar which is literally crowded with goods. Ekman was formerly with Hornick & Walls, Sioux City.

Cherry & Co., Brainerd, have an immense stock of goods, consisting of dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes and general supplies which they offer at wholesale and retail and at bottom prices. Persons wishing goods in their line will find them a square firm with which to deal.

J. A. Morrow, of Omaha, was in town yesterday. He is connected with S. A. Dickey in the store at Fort A. Lincoln. Every body knows Morrow. It was he and Col. Wilson, also interested with Dickey, who treated the editorial party and their friends so handsomely on the occasion of the excursion. Many did well but Wilson and Morrow exceeded all in kind attention.

The first boat loaded for the up river trade from Bismarck was the Peniah, June 14th, 1873. Commodore S. M. Hill and A. Hart delivering clerks of the N. P. R. R., at this station, carrying on board the first articles. The first passengers from the N. P. R. R. for up river were S. B. Ellis, wife and daughter of Capt. Hill, N. L., who went to Fort Benton on the Western, June 27th.

Tuesday morning last week ground was broken for the congregational church a building 30x40. Friday it was finished including seating, Sunday service was held and on Monday a school was opened by Mrs. Slaughter in the church building. The building was put up by Rev. H. N. Gates, the Congregational Missionary, without expense to the people of Bismarck.

Among the old settlers W. B. Shaw & Co. deserve special attention. They were the first to erect a frame building, the first to indulge in a shingle roof or board floor. They run a general store here during the winter, carrying an immense stock. They came to the crossing in May, 1872, and their present location in August doing business in a tent twenty five by one hundred feet, in the fall replacing tent with a building of same size. The Tribune did its first printing for this firm.

The Young Men's Christian Association visited Bismarck on the first instant and had several interesting meetings. H. K. Burnett and J. D. Blake were the principal speakers. Rev. J. E. Woods, Rev. H. N. Gates and Rev. H. C. H. Dudley, of Detroit, came with the party. On the second inst., Mr. Dudley held the first Episcopal service at Bismarck at which a little son of Sergeant Alvin J. Smith was christened. Mrs. L. H. Humber and Col. G. A. Lonsberry acting as God father and God-mother.

The Esplanza returned from Fort Benton on the 4th inst., loaded with furs and minerals. She had 9,000 buffalo robes, 123 bales of wool, 40 sacks of wool, 94 bales of deer and antelope, 16 tons of sugar, and in addition, 300 bars of lead, of which one-third is silver. She made the trip from Benton to Bismarck, 1,000 miles, in four days. At Fort Charles the vessel passed through a cut just made by the high water saving 16 miles. The Esplanza had sixty passengers on the down trip. At Bismarck she took aboard 30 tons of freight for Cheyenne Agency and 20 tons for Santee Agency, twenty miles above Yankton.

Col. Baker, Chief Quartermaster, left the Yellowstone expedition on the 2d inst., and returned for supplies and forage, arriving at Fort A. Lincoln on the 4th. He brought with him a large number of dispatches and two or three sick, among them J. A. Lynch, 8th infantry, who was injured by the hail storm to such an extent that he had to be placed in the hospital. Thirty mules belonging to the expedition were lost in the stampede. Many young antelope were killed and one dog. The head of the dog was pegged to a jelly; men wore black and blue from the bruises. The storm lasted but a few moments and cleared but little ground. Col. Baker left for the front again on Monday.

The Far West and Peniah returned from the Yellowstone yesterday, having left the mouth of Glendine Creek, 120 miles above the mouth of Yellowstone, Tuesday morning, making the trip in a run of 48 hours. The Key West remains and will bring down Lt. Thorne and men so soon as the advance from the expedition relieves them from guarding supplies. The Key West and Far West each made two trips from Buford, and the seven hundred and fifty ton of supplies are now all landed at Glendine. The Peniah was damaged, a broken wheel, and goes to Sioux City for repairs. The Far West is loading with Indian goods and will return at once to Fort Peck. Capt. Coulson reports no Indians—not seen on the trip; little game, but abundance of coal cropping out in the bluffs. The face of the country is about the same as here, but less timber. The current in the Yellowstone is so rapid that vessels run 23 miles an hour down stream.

Bismarck Views.
Some landscape photographers from St. Paul were here last week taking views of Bismarck and surrounding scenery. Some of the views are said to be very fine; particularly the bluff views. Persons wanting them can obtain the views of F. A. Taylor, St. Paul.

Ho For Bismarck.
The City Bakery and Restaurant next door to the Drug Store, supplies bread, cakes, pies and all kinds of pastry fresh every morning. The best of board by the week, day or meal. Meats and lunches at all hours. Call around and try us.
FOURTEEN & YERGEN.

An Institution.
Messrs. Keating and Wolk of Brainerd, have opened a fruit, vegetable and fish market on Front street, Bismarck, D. T., where all kinds of fruits in their season, green vegetables and fine Lake Superior trout and other fresh fish may be found. They also keep hams, bo-boma sausage &c.

Lager Beer.
H. Busch, of the Bismarck Brewery, is now prepared to furnish dealers and others with the article of fresh lager beer warranted equal to any imported article. Dealers at Bismarck, Lincoln, Fort Rice and other points should bear this in mind. By purchasing of Busch they will save express charges.

Cavalry Post.
Fort Abraham Lincoln, opposite Bismarck, now a third company infantry post will be fitted up immediately for ten companies of cavalry involving an expenditure of two hundred thousand dollars, making it the most important post on the Missouri River. Customs regiment is expected to winter there.

Sudden Death.
Wesley Fields, colored, died suddenly at Bismarck, Dakota, June 23d, 1873. Fields was by profession a seaman, and has been employed a number of years on boats running on the Lower Mississippi and Missouri rivers. He was formerly of Indian and is supposed to have a family. He left effects which are in charge of Lloyd E. Bryon, Bismarck. D. T. Sioux City papers are requested to copy, with a view to discovering his connections.

Church Organization.
Rev. D. C. Lyon came through this spring to the end of the track of the first train on his way to look after the interests of the Presbyterian church at Bismarck. He preached here morning and evening Sunday, May 11, holding on that occasion the first religious service at Bismarck. He returned June 12th on a company with Rev. J. O. Shanon, of Belle Plaine, and on the 15th a Presbyterian church was organized consisting of four members. On the 17th a meeting was held for the election of trustees resulting in the election of W. B. Shaw, J. R. Jackson, J. W. Fisher, W. H. White and J. A. Lonsberry. A soliciting committee was appointed to raise funds for the erection of a church and a building committee appointed. The following day six hundred dollars was subscribed toward the building and steps have been taken which will result in building a fine church certainly by the first of October.

The society is small and needs all the outside help that can be obtained. Should this meet the eye of any who can aid in the work they are requested to forward their subscriptions to Rev. D. C. Lyon, St. Paul or W. B. Shaw, Bismarck, Treasurer of the Society.

Personal.
Jesse Lewis and wife of Uniontown Pa., were here last week, the guests of Lieutenant Humbert.

Gen. Davis was in Bismarck Monday, on a tour of inspection. He came down from Fort Benton on the Esplanza. Capt. Giesman was released from arrest by Gen. Terry, and ordered on the expedition. The Red River Star was mistaken in saying that he was acquitted. The result of the court martial will not be announced for some time. The many friends of the Captain are confident of his acquittal, however.

Kour, Rex, of the Dakota Tribune, was in town Wednesday. We are under lasting obligations to him for instruction and assistance. He is not only an excellent printer but a first-class gentleman.
Resettled, of the Brainerd Tribune, Chambers, wife and sister of the Glendon Gazette, and Nickels, of the Moorhead Star, came to Bismarck on the 4th and remained over Sunday. The party more than enjoyed themselves. On Sunday an excursion was had to Fort Lincoln. Col. Wilson and Jack Morrow set out in a basket of champagne. Fred. Girard also did the handsome thing. John F. Dognon and Col. Sweet, came with the party, which returned home Monday, sorry that they could not remain always.
